

PhD Workshop on European/ International Insolvency Law

- 5-6 March 2020
- Leiden University, The Netherlands

The Stichting Bob Wessels Insolvency Law Collection invites PhD students from Europe and beyond to present their research ideas, but also the challenges and questions they confront in a two day workshop on Thursday 5 and Friday 6 March 2020 at the Leiden University.

• Goals of the PhD Workshop

The workshop, organised for the second time, aims at providing PhD students in the area of European/International Insolvency Law with a chance to connect with peers who are at the very same stage of their legal or academic career.

Also, the workshop allows participants to present, test and discuss their (developing) ideas in front of colleagues and experienced professors in order to strengthen research findings and skills.

• Prize

The participants of the PhD Workshop may compete for a prize (a book from the Stichting and EUR 500,-) as a recognition of the most original presentation. Invited applicants who do not give a presentation but present a poster instead will also compete for a book from the Stichting.

• Applications

Participation is limited to invited PhD students. They may apply to present their research proposal, present interim results or a (draft) chapter/article.

Applications for invitations must be submitted through the electronic form by 31 December 2020

For more information and the applying, visit: <https://bit.ly/2kPsC3G>

- Responsibility for the review of applications and the workshop itself is with the Board of the Stichting: Prof. Matthias Haentjens; Prof. Eric Dirix, Prof. Stephan Madaus, Prof. Reinout Vriesendorp and Paul Omar. Prof. Bob Wessels will be involved as a patron. •
